

Food Safety Warning for Campers With Canned Chili, Sauces, Beef Stew and Hash & Dog Foods

Please be warned: Campers DO NOT consume canned chili, beef stew, hash, BBQ pork, hot dog chili sauce, gravy and canned dog food products packed by the Castleberry Company under the following brand names:

Castleberry, Kroger, Cattedrive, Food Lion,
Bloom, Thrifty Made, Austex, Best Yet, Black
Rock, Big Y, Bryan, Bunker Hill, Firefighters, Food
Club, Goldstar, Great Value, Lowes, Meijers,
Morton House, Paramount, Piggly Wiggly,
Prudence, Southern Home, Steak n Shake,
Triple Bar Ranch, Value Time,
Natural Balance Eatables Dog food

The US FDA and USDA have determined these products may be contaminated with Botulism – a potentially deadly food poison – Don't open cans, touch, consume or serve these products even to pets. Return to the place of purchase or properly dispose by placing cans in a double-wrapped plastic bag and dispose of in a secure outside trash receptacle.

August 3, 2007